DESCRIPTION

One of the most spectacular Villas of the Sardinian " Costa Smeralda " properties, built by the famous french architect Savin Couelle. Sitting on top of the " la Celvia/PetraManna " hill it enjoys an amazing 200 degree view of the near sea (300 m), beaches, islands, the Cala di Volpe bay, yachts and mountains. Since it was one of the first Villas build, the best possible location could be chosen. The gardens are beautifully taken care of by a competent gardener, have various dining areas and offer peaceful relax in several quiet places The very special swimming pool features a low rim that gives the impression swimming in the surrounding sea . The villa itsef features natural stone in harmony with the surrounding rocks. Each room is carefully decorated with great taste .
