DESCRIPTION

Located in Costa Smeralda, on top of a promontory carved by the wind, this villa is the result of the balance between aesthetics, quality and functionality. Both the architecture and the interiors required time and great attention to clearly define spaces and functions. The building is a perfect example of contemporary residential architecture in an exceptional setting. If travertine dominates the exteriors, the interiors are an expression of attention to detail where the precious materials, unique objects and artistic decorations create an elegant atmosphere. The interaction between indoor and outdoor is continuous, playing with the light, the colours and the scents of the surrounding nature, thanks to the large windows that frame the landscape. This stunning property is divided into 2 villas interconnected via a marble corridor.
