DESCRIPTION

Situated in a dominant position and just a short walk from the center of Porto Cervo, this historic property is an example of elegance and luxury in the Costa Smeralda style. The details of the architecture accompany the guest emphasizing the marked liveability of the environments. It is indeed a villa that combines luxury with practicality, and that each part invites you to enjoy what it offers, be it the beautiful swimming pool, the exclusive view of the sea and Porto Cervo, or of the living areas or lunches external. As many as 8 rooms with bathroom are distributed between the main body of the villa and secondary building, offering great versatility to the guests and allowing you to live your stay with the degree of privacy you prefer. The wonderful and well-kept garden embraces the property guaranteeing great privacy as well as the colors, scents and energies that only the magic of the Costa Smeralda can produce. For this and many other reasons, this villa is the ideal setting for a unique holiday.
