DESCRIPTION

The colours of Cala di Volpe Bay, Tavolara island, the Pevero Golf course, the Pevero gulf, Mortorio island: few homes offer such a complete view on the Costa Smeralda as this elegant villa does, a property that has one of its greatest strengths in its 180 view on the sea. The villa is the latest project in Costa Smeralda by world famous Architect Luigi Vietti, who also personally crafted many of the interior's elements, like the fireplace; an elegant and bright design define the property, starting from the wonderful patio which introduces us to the living and to the many verandas facing the sea. The very well kept garden is embracing a two levels swimming pool from where it's possible to enjoy the colours and perfumes of Costa Smeralda. The level of privacy is another defining element of this property, together with the rational and enjoyable layout of the spaces.
